

Essar Group to deleverage ₹1.25 lakh-cr debt if offer for Essar Steel is accepted

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi, October 28

RUIA FAMILY-OWNED ESSAR GROUP would deleverage about ₹1.25 lakh-crore of debt, the largest by any corporate, if its offer to repay lenders of Essar Steel in full is accepted, company sources said.

Last week, the committee of Essar Steel creditors picked the world's largest steelmaker ArcelorMittal's ₹42,000-crore takeover offer over the company promoter's ₹54,389-crore proposal to pay off all of the lenders' dues.

Essar plans to legally challenge the decision, as it believes its offer would ensure 100% recovery for lenders while accepting ArcelorMittal's offer would entail a hair-cut, sources said.

Sources said Essar group has so far used ₹650 million (about ₹4,200 crore) from the sale of Aegis US operations, ₹72,000 crore from sale of Essar Oil to Russia's Rosneft and partners, ₹2,000 crore from sale of Aegis and ₹2,400 crore from sale of Equinox to deleverage the group debt.

If the offer for Essar Steel is accepted, the deleveraging would total to ₹1.25 lakh crore, they said. This is more than 85% of total group liabilities.

Essar invested ₹1.2 lakh crore – the highest by any corporate in recent times – between 2010 and 2015 in building world-class assets in the energy, infrastructure, metals and mining, and services sectors.

With the completion of its investment and deleveraging programmes, Essar is growing its substantial portfolio of businesses, revenues of Essar portfolio companies now stand at ₹80,000 crore.

Essar, they said, is a leaner, smarter and wiser corporate with a lighter balance sheet.

Insisting that banks that lent to Essar did lose money, sources said loans are being serviced and more than ₹20,000 crore has been paid to Essar Steel lenders by way of interest.

Oil regulator approves sale of Ambani's natural gas pipeline to Brookfield

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi, October 28

BILLIONAIRE MUKESH

AMBANI has won the approval of oil regulator Petroleum and Natural Gas Regulatory Board (PNGRB) for selling his loss-making east-west natural gas pipeline to Canadian investor Brookfield, an official said.

Ambani's Reliance Gas Transportation Infrastructure, which later changed the name to East West Pipeline (EWPL), a decade back built a 1,400-km pipeline from Kakinada in Andhra Pradesh to Bharuch in Gujarat to transport natural gas discovered in a KG basin block operated by his flagship firm Reliance Industries.

However, the pipeline which had capacity to transport 80 million standard cubic metre per day of natural gas, is currently operating at less than 5% of its capacity as output from the KG-D6 block of RIL fell sooner than expected.
